

DESCRIPTION: Elegant vase in black being composed of a bulge relief is and opened, adorned with a simple comb creating geometric designs, its lines typical of the period. The black oven in order to produce an important cooled down. The colour then permeates of this culture. The piece is of a very high Excellent piece in a great state of preservation.
ORIGIN: Settled on the Korat plateau ceramic, lasted about 4000 years (from domesticated many farm animals, dog iron. Archeologists attribute the black painted vases were produced later assertion.

MEASURES: Height 29 cm – 11,42 "

TEXT: Supplied with a thermoluminescence numb. 160618.

MUSEOGRAPHY: Two very similar pieces are exhibited at the Smithsonian institution in Washington Dc under references S 1998.122 and S1998.124

Police book registration N°: 173