

GOLCONDA

MUSEE
DES ET ANCIENNES
HAUTES CIVILISATIONS

GIACOMO LAURA (1550 - 1605)
ROMAN

original and rare engraving
from the Antiquitates
under glass in an ancient

the baths of Diocletian with street of galle ORIGIN: the Roman baths of Diocletian were located northeast of the city, on the are today home to a part of the National Angeli. The construction of these baths eight years to complete.

Giacomo Laura lived in Veneto and w etching featured was first published in 1 to the Polish nobility.

MEASUREMENTS: 14 cm (5.5") x 11

on

1 of

ney

iths

egli

ook

his

ted

561