

OLCONDA

USÉALE
S ET ANCIENNES
ANDES CIVILISATIONS

(1100 - 256 C)

D: « pas » bowl in bronze
h possibilities of cupri acter». The right-angled neck symbolizes lightning and is separated devoid of decoration. The same set of centre of the bowl. The neck is perforated sunk upside down around a compacted constitute a hollow mould with decoration

over one thousand degrees and is placed while the air escapes through vents. On the barbs that mark the intersections bet ORIGIN: From the 17th century BC to bronze for the fabrication of ritual fun
specific uses according to their usage,
and rediscovery was the result of the work
era to the 10th century.

MEASUREMENTS: Height: 20.5 cm (8.1 in)
CULTURAL PASSPORT issued by the 1

,
2
3
t
/
)
f
,
1
3
1
1
3

)