

OLCONDA

MUSÉE
DES ARTS ET ANCIENNES
CIVILISATIONS

DRIVER AD 618-90

Driver: camel, a dark tan
colored with a cloud allure slightly curved tongue, head looking to the left and de the wool and the mane. The camel carries countries abroad, wearing a turban knot man is sitting with one leg on a stool and low and in the process of guiding the attributes of a camel driver.

This is a piece of outstanding craftsman
in the process of making of the removable Good state of preservation. Fine condition.

ORIGIN: The Asiatic camel, an import from the deserts of Central Asia, and in 1758. It is approximately two meters high mountain for transporting goods along the drink its milk (only as fermented), and Han dynasty, Emperors used it also for up to the desert borders. Chinese people

MEASUREMENTS: Height: 68 cm (2

1
1
2
1
2
2
7
3
3
1
1
1
2
1
.2

QED1514FC-0101

Police book registration N°: 1626