

LCONDA

MUSEE
DES ET ANCIENNES
DES CIVILISATIONS

CHOE CIA (4th cent. B.C.)

PROF: beautifully modeled pant.
but and lovely body support the shoulders. The flat handle mildly ornamentation depicts a small lion in the exception of the foot which is The top of the neck is adorned with section depicts isolated floral motifs. 7 piece. After having turned the piece, of parallel grooves through gouges presence of a painted frieze of pearls a Very good condition, possible old rest ORIGIN: Magna Graecia. decade of the 5th century B.C. If A develop its own iconographic language picorial technique, called Gnathia, of in Taranto in the studio of the painter throughout Apulia. This style of dis (Gnathia).

MEASUREMENTS: Height: 22.6 cm

confirming the dating of this piece. Test n°08270306

Police book registration N° : 115