

OLCONDA

MUSÉE
DES ANCIENNES
CIVILISATIONS

CH HISSH LD
D 386-57

QUE: statuette moulded significant traces of orange colour on a hand resting on a big oblong shield.

protects the ears. A grimace on the face enemy. The chest is protected by a breaches, fuku, go into high boots of b
This is the uniform of superior officers.

The object is well preserved and shows ORIGIN: The Wu dynasty, founded by called Taou, broke with the Han people symbolized a new order for a country thanks to them. In the mid-6th c braces and shield) has been found.
guardian, which explains the mimicry.

DIMENSIONS: 33 cm high

THERMOLUMINESCENCE TEST :

n° 1546/FC-0108

MUSEOGRAPHY: A very similar piece

with
eff
so
he gy
st.

so
ity
th
te,
of

est

iv.

Police book registration N°: 1655