

GALERIE GOLCONDA

ARCHÉOLOGIE MUSÉALE
FOSSILES – BIJOUX RARES ET ANCIENS
CABINET DE CURIOSITÉS DES GRANDES CIVILISATIONS

CERTIFICATE

ANCIENT EGYPTIAN PERIDOT NECKLACE ANCIENT EGYPT - 100 BC- AD 300

MATERIAL AND TECHNIQUE: Necklace with 13 green Peridot beads and 12 spacer beads in golden metal. Modern clasps.

The necklace is intact with a very good state of preservation.

DIMENSIONS: Length: 37,5 cm / 14,566''

PROVENANCE: This necklace was part of Mrs and Mr Goddard Dubois antiquities collection that was acquired during their extensive travels in Egypt in the early 20th Century.

The Dubois jewellery collection was loaned to the Metropolitan Museum of Art, New York to open the Jewel Room in 1919 where the collection was exhibited from 1920 until 1935. The necklace was exhibited at the Boston Museum of Art between 1945 and 1965. The entire Dubois's collection was on loan and exhibited at the Museum of Man in California for six months in 1968.

MUSEOGRAPHY: This piece as been exhibited in:

- Museum of Fine Arts Boston, MA June 1945
- San Diego Museum of Man, CA November 1968
- Metropolitan Museum of Art, NY May 2011

INVENTORY SUMMARY and SHEET:

- Metropolitan Museum of Art, NY May 1920

PRESS CUTTINGS:

- San Diego Union, July 14, 1968
- Metropolitan Museum of Art, 1920

PHOTO:

- Inventory Museum of Man 1968

Police book registration N°: 1760